Angels, Satan, Demons

Group Discussion Questions

Discuss answers to the following questions related to this study. As you share ideas and formulate answers to the questions, work to incorporate key scripture verses that relate directly or indirectly to this Angels, Satan, Demons study.

1. When we think about angelic beings, we need to stay close to scripture. What are common assumptions people have about angels, Satan, and demons that are often misinformed and unlike what the Bible teaches?
2. Angelic beings are all created but everlasting and personal spiritual beings, but they differ in important ways. Two major categories of angelic beings are angels and demons. In what ways are they similar and different?
3. Righteous angels represent the majority of angels. They remain faithful to God and serve as messengers and ministers. According to scripture, to whom do angels minister and what are specific biblical examples of them serving as messengers and ministers?
4. Demons are fallen, rebellious angels. They never die and actively oppose God, Christians, and other people across the generations. What are examples of these evil spirits' activity in scripture? Based on this, how might we assume they still remain active today?
5. Satan is the chief fallen angel. Though no match for God who brilliantly uses him for His own divine purposes as a precursor to judgment, Satan is a dangerous though defeated foe of believers. What does scripture say about Satan's current deceptive and destructive activity on the earth and among humanity? What are things scripture says awaits Satan in the future?

Angels, Satan, Demons
